

Arithmetic problem set 9

1. Lily found eight shells on the beach. She gave three shells to her friend. How many shells does Lily have now?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: Lily has _____ shells now.

2. Ben has nine toy cars. He gets four more for his birthday. How many toy cars does Ben have in total?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: Ben has _____ toy cars in total.

3. Sarah baked twelve cookies. Her brother ate one cookie. How many cookies are left?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: There are _____ cookies left.

4. David has seven pencils. Emily gives him five more. How many pencils does David have now?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: David now has _____ pencils.

5. A farmer has ten cows in the field. He buys five more cows. How many cows does he have now?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: The farmer now has _____ cows.

6. There are fifteen children in a class. Three children are absent today. How many children are in the class today?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: There are _____ children in the class today.

7. A baker made six cakes. He sold two of them. How many cakes does the baker have left?

Number sentence: _____

Answer: The baker has _____ cakes left.