Arithmetic problem set 1

1. Lily has seven crayons. Ben gives her three more crayons. How many crayons does Lily have in total?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Lily has _____ crayons in total.

2. Aisha baked twelve cookies. She ate four of the cookies. How many cookies are left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ cookies left.

3. Noah had nine toy cars. He got six more for his birthday. How many toy cars does Noah have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Noah now has _____ toy cars.

4. Olivia found eleven seashells at the beach. She gave three seashells to her friend. How many seashells does Olivia have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Olivia now has _____ seashells.

5. Ethan saw eight butterflies in the garden. Five of them flew away. How many butterflies are left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ butterflies left.

6. Sophia had five stickers. Her dad gave her eight more stickers. How many stickers does Sophia have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Sophia has _____ stickers now.

7. James had fourteen balloons. Two balloons popped. How many balloons does James have left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: James has _____ balloons left.