Arithmetic problem set 19

1. A squirrel found eight acorns. It ate three of them. How many acorns does the squirrel have left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: The squirrel has _____ acorns left.

2. Barnaby the bear had four honey pots. He found seven more. How many honey pots does Barnaby have in total?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Barnaby has _____ honey pots in total.

3. Penelope the penguin saw eleven fish swimming. Two of the fish swam away. How many fish are still swimming?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ fish still swimming.

4. A baker made nine cupcakes. A hungry monster ate five of them. How many cupcakes are left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ cupcakes left.

5. Flora the fairy had three magic wands. She bought six more from the magic shop. How many wands does Flora have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Flora now has _____ magic wands.

6. Kevin the kangaroo had twelve bouncy balls. He lost one of them. How many bouncy balls does Kevin have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Kevin now has _____ bouncy balls.

7. Olivia the octopus found five shiny pebbles. Then she found four more. How many shiny pebbles does Olivia have?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Olivia has _____ shiny pebbles.