Arithmetic problem set 39

1. A fluffy unicorn had one hundred and twenty-five rainbow lollipops. A mischievous goblin stole twenty-one of them. How many lollipops does the unicorn have left?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: The unicorn has _____ lollipops left.

2. Barnaby the badger baked two hundred and fifty-six blueberry muffins. His friend Penelope the penguin ate forty-two of them. How many muffins are left?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: There are _____ muffins left.

3. Celeste the caterpillar collected thirty-three shiny buttons. She found six more buttons under a leaf. How many buttons does Celeste have in total?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Celeste has _____ buttons in total.

4. Professor Bumble, the bee, had one hundred and sixty-seven test tubes. He bought one hundred and twenty-two more. How many test tubes does Professor Bumble have now?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Professor Bumble now has _____ test tubes.

5. Sir Reginald the rhino had eighty-nine rubber ducks in his bathtub. He added ten more rubber ducks. How many rubber ducks are there in total?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: There are _____ rubber ducks in the bathtub.

6. Esmeralda the elephant had three hundred and twenty-three peanuts. She ate twelve of them. How many peanuts does Esmeralda have remaining?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Esmeralda has _____ peanuts remaining.