Arithmetic problem set 2

1. Lily had eight crayons. She found four more crayons under the sofa. How many crayons does Lily have now?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Lily has _____ crayons now.

2. Ben saw twelve butterflies in the garden. Five of them flew away. How many butterflies are left in the garden?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: There are _____ butterflies left in the garden.

3. Sarah has seven sweets. Her friend gave her three more. How many sweets does Sarah have in total?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Sarah has _____ sweets in total.

4. David baked ten cookies. He ate three cookies. How many cookies does David have left?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: David has _____ cookies left.

5. Emily read five books. Then she read six more. How many books did Emily read altogether?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Emily read _____ books altogether.

6. Jack had fourteen toy cars. He gave one car to his brother. How many toy cars does Jack have left?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Jack has _____ toy cars left.

7. Olivia collected nine seashells on the beach. Her dad gave her four more. How many seashells does Olivia have now?
    Number sentence: _____
    Answer: Olivia has _____ seashells now.