Arithmetic problem set 7

1. Lily has eight crayons. Her friend gave her three more. How many crayons does Lily have in total?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Lily has _____ crayons in total.

2. David found twelve seashells on the beach. He gave five seashells to his dad. How many seashells does David have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: David has _____ seashells now.

3. Sarah baked nine cookies. She ate one cookie. How many cookies are left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ cookies left.

4. Jack has seven toy cars. He gets four more for his birthday. How many toy cars does Jack have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Jack has _____ toy cars now.

5. Emily saw fifteen butterflies in the garden. Six butterflies flew away. How many butterflies are left in the garden?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ butterflies left in the garden.

6. Ben has four apples and his brother gives him three more apples. How many apples does Ben have altogether?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Ben has _____ apples altogether.

7. Olivia had eleven stickers and gave two stickers to her best friend. How many stickers does Olivia have remaining?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Olivia has _____ stickers remaining.