Arithmetic problem set 8

1. Lily had seven crayons. She found three more crayons. How many crayons does Lily have in all?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Lily has _____ crayons in all.

2. David baked twelve cookies. He ate four of them. How many cookies are left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are _____ cookies left.

3. Sarah has eight stickers. John has two stickers. How many stickers do they have altogether?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: They have _____ stickers altogether.

4. Aisha saw five butterflies in the garden. Then, nine more butterflies flew in. How many butterflies are in the garden now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: There are now _____ butterflies in the garden.

5. Ben had thirteen marbles. He gave five marbles to his friend. How many marbles does Ben have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Ben now has _____ marbles.

6. Chloe has six dolls. Her grandma gave her four more dolls for her birthday. How many dolls does Chloe have now?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: Chloe now has _____ dolls.

7. A farmer had fifteen sheep. He sold six sheep at the market. How many sheep does the farmer have left?
   Number sentence: _____
   Answer: The farmer has _____ sheep left.